

The Universal Declaration of a World More Human and More Divine

There comes a time, and that time is Now, for the One body of People of different Languages, Religions and Nations, to come together, One by One to eliminate, with unconditional love, any injustice or evil that exists within governments, religions, and all sectors in the economic, and social systems. To respect the opinions of humankind, we declare the causes that impel us to change the course of History.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men and women are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. To secure these birthrights, among others, it is the right of the People, when necessary to challenge and change the very fabric of society with the subtle power of Divine Love, manifested in the Spiritual Truth of each person.

Rooted in the History of the human family is a History of repeated injurious and devastating actions to the detriment of all people. To prove this, let some of the facts be submitted to a candid world.

When and where the hierarchy and other leaders seek to be served rather than serve and are blind to injustices of which the consequences are too many to enumerate.

When and where hypocrisy and discrepancy between word and deed cripples the pursuit of happiness and causes frustration and mistrust.

When and where hardness of heart suffocates dignity and endowed abilities, which stifles gainful employment for those willing and able to work.

When and where there exists a conspiracy of silence that perpetuates contempt for basic human rights resulting in degrading treatment and violence and keeps peace an impossible dream.

When and where doctrine is enforced by power, arrogance and guilt, which instill resentment, anger, and shackle fundamental freedoms.

When and where humankind is exploited by greed and corruption for self-gain, culminating in environmental abuse and all forms of intimidation and oppression.

When and where prejudice and discrimination exists either in race, color, sex, religion, or national origin, which generates stress, hate and chaos.

When and where those who govern use power to gain absolute power, which corrupts absolutely and leads to confrontation, conflict, persecution and war.

When and where fear chains and binds the mind creating turmoil and suppression of the greater good of all people.

The Time of Waiting is Over ... to hear, see, and understand that we are One People, and so whatever we do to one another, we do to ourselves, which at times leads to unrest, grief and sorrow. Thus, to uplift our spirit, mend our broken heart and break the chains that bind our mind, we acknowledge and confirm that unconditional love is the one enduring solution to all of life's challenges and problems, global or personal.

We, therefore, the One body of People of different Languages, Religions and Nations, proclaim our absolute right of liberty vested in Spirit to change the course of History with the subtle power of Divine Love. And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other, our Lives, our Fortunes and our Sacred Honor as together, One by One, we Create A World More Human and More Divine!
